

Cost Estimate for Egg Donation

The Egg Donor Program

- The Egg Donor Fee: This fee varies depending on the donor that you choose. First time donors are $7,000.00 and up. The average is about $10,000.00. Our experienced Egg Donor's fees increase with each donation.
- Travel Expenses: These fees vary depending on the donor that you choose, if the donor is flying the travel costs anywhere from $4,000.00 to $6,000.00. If you select a donor that is local to your doctor's office the travel would be less depending on gas mileage, parking at the doctor's office, or hotel accommodations if needed the night before the retrieval.
- Monitoring Deposit: This deposit is collected if the donor is not local to your doctor's office and needs to be set up with a monitoring facility. This ranges from $1,500.00-$2,000.00.
- Medical Fees: The Egg Donor Program is not responsible for cycle medical fees. Please note that if after first medical screening it is decided that cycle should not go forward through no fault of her own, a compensation of $200.00 will be paid to the donor
